Regulations for the Appointment of Graduate Advisors in the Department of Law at Fu Jen Catholic University

Formulated and passed at the Joint Meeting of the College and Department Faculty on December 14, 2022
Approved by the Dean on January 18, 2023

Article 1 These Regulations are established to strengthen the life counseling, academic learning, and professional development of master's students, as well as to enhance integration and harmony between faculty members and students.

Article 2 Advisors for the Public Law Group, Civil and Commercial Law Group, Criminal Law Group, and Fundamental Legal Studies Group of the master's program in this Department shall be recommended, respectively, by the Public Law, Civil and Commercial Law, Criminal Law, and Fundamental Legal Studies Research Centers of the College of Law from among the full-time faculty members teaching in the master's program. The Chair of this Department shall serve as the ex-officio advisor for their respective group based on their professional field of expertise.

Article 3 Master's program advisors shall be nominated and recommended once every two years.

Article 4 Regarding academic research, thesis or dissertation advisors shall guide graduate students in course selection and research orientation.

Article 5 These Regulations shall be implemented after being passed by the Joint Meeting of the College and Department Faculty and submitted to the Dean for formal approval. The same procedure shall apply to any subsequent amendments.
